

Checking out Famufest

Famufest is the film festival organised by students from the world-famous film academy FAMU in Prague, Czech Republic. Last year was its 'coming of age' as it was the 21st in this series of festivals which is still famously going strong.

Kodak Entertainment Imaging has long been a partner of the event and awards a prize known as the Kodak Vision prize to successful young filmmakers.

At Famufest '21 more than one hundred films were presented in the competition category and 94 films in non-competition. The jury at Famufest '21 awarded the following Kodak Vision prizes which were presented by the General Manager of Kodak Ltd, Peter Boyce.

Best Film of the Cinematography Dept FAMU

Malý svět DP Karel Fairaisl

Best film by audience

Malý svět Director Vit Karas

Best film of the festival

Český sen Directors Vit Klusak and Filip Remunda

For more information about the festival see their website at www.famufest.cz ■

Above: An audience at the festival.

Below: Director Vit Karas, (left) receiving his award for best film for Malý svět from Juraj Hertz.

